

INVICTUS

RUCHÈ DI CASTAGNOLE MONFERRATO D.O.C.G. - Late harvest

It is a wine of great elegance, velvety and persistent which comes from the rare Ruchè grape, present only in this corner of Piedmont. It is an indigenous variety, cultivated only in seven municipalities: Tenuta Montemagno is located between two of them and produces in its personal and unique interpretation this wine, the most exclusive of the Alto Monferrato.

INVICTUS comes from particular Ruchè grapes with late harvesting, to give this wine structure and personality. With an intense red colour and purple/black highlights, this wine presents notes of roses, violets and ripe red fruits. Full, clearly tannic and aromatic, Invictus has a long longevity and elegance. Serve at a temperature of 18-20°C.

INVICTUS

RUCHÈ DI CASTAGNOLE MONFERRATO D.O.C.G.

Monferrato is a land of historical autochthonous and international vines – from Ruchè to Barbera d'Asti, to Grignolino and Syrah – that create some of the most renowned red wines in Italy. In our cellar, where we mature the fruits of the vine with consummate skill, we proudly display the crowns and medals, bunches of grapes and stars that are the fruits of the numerous prizes awarded to our labels.

This recognition of the quality of our red wines, in the region of the great reds, is a source of pride for us and an inspiration to continue pursuing the finest quality in our vineyards and in our cellar.
